London

London is one of the world's great cities. Ranked as the 'Top Travel Destination in the World' in the 2016 TripAdvisor Travellers' Choice Awards, London is home to world-famous historical sites such as the Tower of London, Buckingham Palace and Big Ben. A global centre for entertainment, culture, shopping and the arts, the city is home to 170 museums, 850 art galleries, nearly 800 cinema screens and over 200 shows per day across the West End.

During the UCL Summer School you'll have plenty of time to explore London and with a near endless range of attractions and activities to be enjoyed, you're sure to find something of interest. The city's social calendar is at its peak over the summer and includes a wide range of cultural and sporting events as well as festivals, exhibitions, lectures, talks and tours to keep you busy. UCL's central location in the heart of the city will give you the perfect base from which to explore.

About the UCL Summer School

The UCL Summer School is divided into two sessions, each spanning three weeks (titles can be found on the back of this leaflet). You can choose to attend for one or two sessions, and you will study one module per session.

You will be taught by UCL academics in interactive small groups and many modules incorporate class visits and guest speakers to further enhance your learning. As a UCL Summer School student you will have full-time student status and a UCL ID card which entitles you to full borrowing rights in our libraries.

With 18 specialist libraries and five permanent collections on campus, and all of London's museums, galleries and monuments within easy reach, you will have a wealth of resources to support your studies. While some personal study is necessary in order to succeed, evenings and weekends are clear to allow you to explore the city of London and further afield.

Join us for three or six weeks and discover how UCL can help you realise your potential.

Modules

The UCL Summer School offers over 50 modules from a wide range of subject areas. Many of our modules are introductory, meaning no prior subject knowledge is required, while others have specific entry requirements.

UCL recommends that each module is worth the equivalent of 4 US credits or 7.5 ECTS. Students can be guaranteed that each module carries the same academic rigor and workload as a regular UCL undergraduate module. Depending on the regulations at your home institution it may be possible to transfer credits gained to your own degree programme.

Social programme

We want you to make the most of your time in London, and have designed a series of events to help you to do just that.

Alongside a number of free events such as welcome drinks, quiz nights and the end of summer boot party, we also offer a range of events in and around London. Other events will include West End shows, comedy nights and day trips to historical and cultural attractions – there will be something for everyone!

Details on how to sign up for events and activities will be available at:

The UCL Summer School gives you the chance to study in London for three or six weeks over the summer and gain credit towards your degree programme.

About UCL

Based in the heart of London, UCL is a world-leading university. Our academic specialisms cover most subjects, from the arts and social sciences to health and physical sciences, and our innovative focus on interdisciplinary study to examine global issues sets us apart. Our academic excellence and location in one of the world's most dynamic capital cities give you unrivalled personal, social and academic benefits which will enhance any CV or résumé.

London's Global University

UCL has a global reach and a global vision. We currently welcome students from over 150 different countries, and recognise and celebrate the diversity and different viewpoints that our students bring. Our academic staff, drawn from around 100 different countries, are similarly diverse.

Global outlook, global issues

The modules on offer give a flavour of UCL's ethos and academic expertise. Our aim is to make "global citizens" of all our students, and we invite you to think about issues affecting the entire world.

All UCL Summer School modules aim to incorporate the latest research in each subject area, and many also make use of London as a unique learning resource, taking the learning experience beyond the classroom through excursions and field trips.

Entry requirements

You will have completed at least one year of undergraduate study at the time of joining the UCL Summer School and normally be able to demonstrate an average grade, or equivalent academic experience, of:

- // 3.3/4.0 GPA (US scale)
- // 2.1 (UK)
