

Thomas Jefferson Scholarship Program's 2017-2018 Tunisia Community College Scholarship Program (TCCSP)

Improve Your Professional Skills While Studying in the United States!

Application Deadline: Wednesday, November 30, 2016 at 5:00pm Tunis time

As a part of the Thomas Jefferson Scholarship Program, the Tunisia Community College Scholarship Program (TCCSP) provides opportunities for young students from Tunisia attending ISET (Institut Supérieur des Études Technologiques), IHET (Institut des Haute Études Touristiques), and ISSAT (Institut Supérieur des Sciences Appliquées et de Technologie) to spend one academic year improving their vocational skills at accredited U.S. community colleges offering certificate programs in eligible fields of study.

All participants will:

- Attend classes full-time for one academic year in a certificate program in their field of study;
- Participate in service learning in their host community;
- Complete a part-time professional internship/practicum during their second semester;
- Students will live in dormitories on the college campus or in off-campus housing. Single sex housing is generally available.

2017-2018 Eligible Fields of Study for TCCSP are:

- Applied Technology
- Business Administration and Management
- Information Technology
- Tourism & Hospitality Management

Applicants must be able to achieve a TOEFL score of 440 or likely to achieve this score after short-term pre-academic English training.

U.S. community colleges are undergraduate institutions that specialize in providing post-secondary education in applied fields, technical skills development, and job training. Participants are selected through an open, merit-based competition. This is a fully funded scholarship.
